TERMS AND CONDITIONS

General legal disclaimers and regulations:

No pets allowed on board. We reserve the right to deny boarding to additional passengers (please ask the rate for extra passengers). No weapons, corrosive or flammable substances, no illegal substance consumption, drugs or alcohol intoxication, any type of physical or verbal aggression, damage to the vessel or unpaid overtime. Penalties apply for not following the captain or crew instructions. Smoking is permitted only in designated areas. No changes allowed to established navigation routes. Unauthorized operation of navigation controls, hatches, doors, or any vessel elements is prohibited. Any health risk or intoxication warrants immediate return to land. Diving from the vessel is prohibited. Footwear is not allowed on board. We are not responsible for lost or thrown objects at the sea. Connecting external appliances or electronics to the vessel is prohibited. Any vessel damage or misuse is responsibility of the contractee. Use of sunscreens, creams, or oils on lounges, benches, chairs, beds, or carpets is prohibited. Exceeding maximum capacity in cabins and bathrooms is prohibited. Passenger participation in activities is solely their responsibility.

Cancellation Policies:

All reservations require a 50% paid deposit. 100% refund with 7 or more days notice prior to the tour date. Date changes allowed within 48 hours or more notice prior to the departure date, subject to availability. 50% refund with less than 48 hours notice prior to departure date or no-show. Late arrivals do not allow itinerary modifications (time starts from reservation time). Full refund if Captains determines cancellation due to weather conditions, safety concerns, or yacht mechanical failures.

Guidelines:

In any case, delays in returning the vessel result in the lessee being liable for expenses, damages and losses incurred by the lessor and subsequent lessees unable to take possession at the scheduled time. Lessee is responsible for all the expenses, damages, and losses resulting from returning the vessel to a different location than the agreed upon. Vessel is considered returned once completely vacated by the lessee and all belongings removed. Upon lease termination, a general inspection of the vessel, equipment, rigging, gear, and provisions will be conducted, with the lessee responsible for any damages, faults, or losses except for normal wear and tear. Upon inspection clearance with no liabilities, the security deposit will be refunded. If damages, faults breakdowns, or losses are found, appropriate compensation will be deducted from the security deposit, with any remainder refunded by the lessor. Insufficient security deposit triggers the application of the insured coverage; beyond such coverage, lessee is responsible for complete repairs and liability. Anchoring time begins after 6 hours.
